Safety tips, riding tips, and more!

Ride in Your Comfort Zone

Before going on a ride, it's important to consider factors such as your experience, your motorcycle, and the ride route.

Make sure your bike is a comfortable fit, allowing easy reach to handlebars and controls without feeling too heavy. Familiarize yourself with the route before you leave and choose roads that are within your comfort zone, considering traffic and road surface. Also, if you're riding in a group, don't feel pressured to keep pace with other riders, ride at a speed that you feel comfortable with.

Moto Guzzi V7 Stone Ten
First Look

In 2014, Moto Guzzi established The Clan, a global club that has effectively cultivated a generation of enthusiastic new Guzzisti. Members have connected, shared experiences, organized rallies, and embarked on large-scale journeys. A decade later, The Clan has expanded to 50,000 members, prompting Moto Guzzi to commemorate this milestone with a special edition of the V7 Stone known as the 2024 Moto Guzzi V7 Stone Ten. The new V7 Stone edition features a dynamic split tank design with black-and-white checkered band, glossy black, and red pinstriping. Glossy white sides, a red Mandello Eagle, and red coil springs on shock absorbers convey a sporty feel. Contrasting red stitching on the seat trim, bar-end rearview mirrors, and red Moto Guzzi logos on wheel rims add distinctive touches. Each unit is identified by a plate on the handlebar clamp. The V7 Stone Ten will hit Moto Guzzi dealerships starting April 2024, with a price tag of $9,990.
